NEW ARMORY IS DISCUSSED BY DELAVAL COUNCIL

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Deval Council at a meeting of the city council Tuesday night the building of a new armory was discussed but nothing definite was done. The city attorney had drawn up resolutions and ordinances to provide for its erection. State aid, dollar for dollar, to the amount of $20,000 has been promised after July 1 by Gen. Hollway and the plan is to erect an armory at a cost of $40,000.
It is claimed by the state officials that if the city officials were housed in it, it would make state aid impossible. A committee consisting of Capt. Charles Boardman, Rev. C. W. Boag, Frank Emmons and others, went to Madison to investigate. The armory will have to be voted on at the next meeting, April 4, or the first of May.

EAT TO LIVE, IS ADVICE OF NURSE AT P-T. MEETING

"Eat to live—don't live to eat," said Miss Alice Glenn, Red Cross nurse, speaking before a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' organization at the Grant school, Tuesday afternoon. In a talk on proper diet for growing children, Miss Glenn and green vegetables she described as the protective foods and she gave the practical workings of the plan for milk lunches in the schools. She told the mothers to give to each child in the family a quart of milk a day, was her advice.

They were Bernice Kane, Helen Bergman, Helen Curry, Dorothy Edgerton, Blair Baum, Alice Hayes, Betty Vandover, Evelyn Knutson, Audrey Lowell and Phyllis Cockfield. [SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
Jefferson—Warrants for the arrest of Robert W. Lyons, president, and C. R. Gorton, former vice president, of the Jefferson Rubber company, have been issued at the request of District Attorney Ray C. Twining, charging the men with defrauding the company of $25,000. Lyons, according to District Attorney Twining, has been located at New Castle, Ind., and Gorton is supposed to be in Chicago. Their arrest is expected within a few days. The man came to Jefferson and promoted the company, a corporation organized for the manufacture of tires for autos.

"Accused by these beliefs, we were elected to the office of president of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The next was termination of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The next was an agreement between the five principal allied and associated powers for a reduction of naval armaments. The third was to accomplish all that was possible to aid China in establishing a free and independent government and particularly to secure the restoration of the great province of Shantung to the Chinese empire to which it rightfully belonged."

TEACHING, HIGHEST WORK SAYS DEAN

Praises Women for Study of Civic Affairs, Men Are Negligent.

By VIRGINIA DWYER.
Jansville H. S. Graduate.
Describing the teaching profession as the highest possible vocation and stating that he was a teacher—a teacher of scripture—Dean J. F. Ryan, of St. Patrick's church, speaking before the Jansville Teachers' association, said there is a lack of appreciation for the foundations of democracy—universal education.
Many citizens do not realize that teaching is the highest possible vocation, said Dean Ryan. "We find in stores and factories good teachers who ought to be in our schools."

Dean Ryan after graduating from St. Francis' Seminary, attended Waterville Normal school and taught this Seminary 18 years, and has a thorough knowledge of teaching problems.
"Education should be widespread in our country in order to have a board of citizens to appreciate the ideals and institutions of our constitution and the exemplary lives of our statesmen and heroes," he said. "Education does not mean knowledge simply, but character building. By education meant both physical education, moral education, and for the development of the mental faculties. For this latter reason, students study algebra, geometry, Greek, Latin and French, although they may not make practical use of those subjects they will be able to apply these to the circumstances of later life. The study of languages is of particular value to teachers."

Praise for Women.
"It should be the conscientious duty of every citizen of our democracy to be capable voters and efficient in deciding issues. Seven years ago, I expressed myself as being in favor of women suffrage and prohibition. The women are more capable than men, in many cases, at any rate, because of their better study of civic affairs. They have formed clubs for this purpose where men have been negligent."

"Religion, in its broad, non-sectarian aspects, should be introduced into the curriculum of the schools. This is now being done only incidentally."

Dean Ryan also stressed the great power for good that the union of all Christian churches would be. He expressed praise for a willingness to cooperate with the public school system.

Essentials for Teacher.

No teacher, he said, can be a real teacher without these fundamental principles: native ability, the necessary knowledge, disposition and virtues founded on religion, some experience and proper training.

Father Ryan quoted a short extract from the address given at the Rotary club by Asst. State Supt. of Schools.

THIS WILL CALL FOR RUSSIAN RELIEF
Apparently recognizing the fact that there was a part of the people of the state who were not to be deceived by the cry of relief for the famine sufferers of Russia by the specious pleading of the American Committee of Russian Famine Relief organized under Soviet request, that body has relinquished the attempt to secure funds and foods in the state and turned it over to the Friends Society. Under the Friends the supplies will be sent to Russia consigned to Americans and distributed under American eyes and by American direction. That is what we want.
Just because someone says there is hunger in Russia, a fact we have known, and that babies are dying and children are falling in the street from want, is no sign we should get into a panic of giving to someone who is unable to assure us that the destination will actually be these hungry ones. That was the situation in reference to the American Committee for Russian Famine Relief.
If the local committee will now turn to and start
the ball rolling with the assurance of the supplies
going to the starvation sections of Russia there need be no trouble about raising a car of flour or more here in Rock county and other cars in adjacent counties to be distributed by the Friends.

CHIEF JUSTICE AAD J. VINJE ON PATERNALISM.
In a few minutes' talk to the Rock county bar association Monday night Chief Justice Aad J.
Vinje thrust home some deliberately painful truths in reference to the trend of legislation in these times. He called attention to the paternalism of law, to the effort at inhibition of certain actions and to direct personal relations and conduct. No one pretends longer to know the laws and half the lawyers have a hard task to find them even in the index. In order to know all the statutes a lawyer would have to stop practice for a year or so and read all the laws. Justice Vinje called upon the attorneys and guests present to see that legislators trained in economics, social science and in the law should be sent to the legislature. There are those who take issue with the chief justice, perhaps, as to the training in law needed for a competent member of the legislature. Some of the most notorious freak bills introduced in legislative bodies have been by lawyers. But that there is need for a legislature that has a deeply conscious and honest intent in reference to economic government is recognized.
We have so changed our constitution without amending it formally that we have added a different kind of government and, as Justice Vinje declares, now have some 60 commissions and bureaux in action. It is said that one of the justices of the court when asked how many commissions
the state really needed answered, "No more than can be housed in the capitol anyway."

THE BONUS BILL BEFORE CONGRESS
While a bill providing for adjusted compensation for the service men of the late war has been introduced in the House of Representatives, it does not follow that the measure in its present form will eventually become a law. Introduction is only the first step. Amendment is most likely to be made either in the House or the senate. As it is,
the bill introduced provides for a cash bonus
when the compensation is less than $50, and for certificates which may be used as collateral at any bank for a loan. Then there is the option of land and vocational education. The result may not be entirely satisfactory to those who demand a cash bonus payable at one time and soon, but in the condition of the finances of the country will enable the adjusted compensation to be paid.
If the service men wishes he can carry the certificate and draw 4 1/2 per cent interest during his life, the same as he could were his money invested in a government bond, except also that the interest is compounded.
It has been evident that the idea of a sales tax was so disliked by the public generally that a bonus bill with all cash payments depending upon the passage of such a tax measure, would fall utterly. It is predicted by Mr. Fordney, the

CHANGING NAMES
By FREDERIC J. HASKIN
New York.—One of the convenient features about living in the United States is that you can change your name here as often as you like without getting into legal difficulties. No one has to go through life squirming under the burden of a ridiculous name because his parents were unkind enough to bestow it upon him. He can simply discard it and take another—two or three others, at intervals. If the spirit moves him. No one will object, except perhaps the parents whose judgment has been questioned. Certainly the law will not stop him.
There is a great deal in a name. Will Shakespeare be so well known as William Shakespeare? A rose would unquestionably lose some of its beauty if it were called a turnip, and there are names which obviously detract from the glamor and dignity of a human personality. A woman would have to be extremely beautiful to live down the effect of the name Lizzie Buzzer—which is one selected at random from the telephone directory—and a man would have to be scintillating indeed to overcome the general impression created by the name Peter B. Dull, another telephone subscriber.
Business men, especially retailers, cannot afford to have long and complicated names which explain why some immigrants eliminate a syllable or two from their names after residing in this country awhile.
It is not uncommon for people to apply to the courts for permission to change their names, but it is not compulsory. They do so only as an extra precaution in case distant relatives should leave them legacies, and it should become necessary for them to prove, beyond the question of a doubt, that they were once the owners of the names mentioned in the wills. This privilege of repudiating a disagreeable cognomen is one of our many inheritances from English common law, and one which is not enjoyed by most European nations, where a change in name is certain to excite the suspicion both of the police and the passage authorities.

MORTAL IMMORTALITY.
With rose leaves, maidens fair, deck Aphrodite's
bier:
Youth dreams she is immortal while he sheds a tear.
Ah, many lives she lives, and many deaths she dies.
And many tears are shed from blinded mortal
eyes.
Her glance is sad as sweet, her smile is brief as fair.
And sorrow in her kiss is more than man can bear.
So sing her requiem; strew rose leaves on her
And soon the winter winds will leave them crisp
and clear.

MY FRIEND SYLVESTER
Sylvester was downcast when he pulled the old street piano up to the curb and began grinding
out "The Marseillaise." His wife, Mariouche, eyed him dolefully. When he came around with the tambourine for the nickels we asked him
what was the matter.
"Sets like dead meat," he said. "Too much trouble all the time. Day behind yesterday I go by the piano shop to get a new tune for a dime. My wife, Mariouche, she say da old tune sets good enough, but I say no. I must have style. I want to get da new style. After the style she say da new style is da new style.
When I got out by side of Mulligan
Brothers saloon and start to play nice tune called "Keeza Me Agula," a nice looking West girl she came along and say: "Alla right, go, I do as you wish," and she grab me by da neck and around an' keeza me, my Mariouche, she take da break an' she smash me an' she smash da piano an' she smash da keeza bug an' we all go by the jail house for all night. Too much trouble, I say. No more new fashion tune."

Who's Who Today
VISCONTRESS RHONDDA.
The petition of Viscountess Rhondda to sit in the house of lords has been granted by the Committee on privileges of the house of lords. After the fact of the house of lords awarded her by this ruling she will be the first woman to sit in the upper house of the British parliament. The viscountess is 39 years old and daughter of the first Viscount Rhondda, the late
food controller of England,
and Sybil Margaret Haig.
In 1908 she married Sir Hamphrey Mackworth. Her splendid management of her father's varied business interests both before and after his death has given her
the name of a clever business woman. She is director in more than thirty important British industries
and as sole heiress to her father she is one of the wealthiest persons in England.
There are twenty-three other peeresses in their own right in the united Kingdom who are affected by the decision to allow women to sit in the house of lords. Viscountess Rhondda is said to be the first woman to have asked the right to enter that august body.

JUST FOLKS
By EDGAR A. GUEST
THE REAL PEOPLE
When everything is said and done
And all the "isms" talked about,
The folks all counted, one by one,
And catalogued and singled out,
We settle down once more to find
The mass of human folk is kind.
A few there are who go astray,
The most of most unhappy lives,
Some women tread the scarlet way,
Some husbands quarrel with their wives,
But millions, when the day is sped,
See that their children go to bed.

Personal Health Service

MAKE IT SNAPPY
Proponents of what is called supervised play in the field of physical education often say that unless exercise is made amusing or pleasurable it is of little health value. This is an error. Even though exercise is a hateful duty and hateful it is to the people who need it most—those who are ill, those who are nervous, those who are old, those who are young,
the matter is that the play interest is to be encouraged simply because it makes some persons take exercise who might otherwise neglect it. With all due consideration for the psychological bearing of play, interest, but without forgetting the physiological aspect, I think one derives the same benefit from running a mile whether he is trying to catch the last train home or just "twisting." One absorbs exactly the same amount of oxygen while infatigating a tire on a hot dusty road with his wife offering suggestions as he does with his neighbor's wife registering anxiety.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Diphtheria.
We are having an epidemic of diphtheria in our village. If a family is quarantined with diphtheria, can the father be taken from the house? Can one of the family who is not sick carry the germ? (N. B. O.)
Answer.—Diphtheria is a disease, who does not carry it, a third person, who comes in contact with a diphtheria patient, may become a carrier. The father may be taken from the house, but he must be quarantined. The germ in his nose or throat, and communicate them contract the disease, although the carrier himself remains immune.

Answer.—The kick of the leg which follows the tap on the tendon indicates a normal nerve connection between the brain and the muscles of the spinal cord. Such a test is intellectually employed and interpreted by a physician, and for any one else
to attempt to draw conclusions
from it can lead only to error.

Housecleaning
At the best, housecleaning is a hard and tiresome job.
Anything that lightens this task
is a help.
High costs of materials and the difficulty often experienced in getting domestic help have complicated the job still more.
The government has studied this problem and has issued a booklet
which contains the results of its study in a booklet. This is a free publication which the Washington Information Bureau will secure for any of our readers.
The booklet is to make housecleaning simpler
and easier and at the same time get full service from the materials used in the furnishing and care of the house. The methods suggested are based both on the well tested experience of practical housekeepers and on the results of sci-

The Guarded Heights

By WADSWORTH CAMP

WHAT WAS GONE BEFORE. George Morton goes to work at the home of Planter, a rich man, when his father loses all his property—a livery business. George becomes a horse trainer and is sent to Sylvia Planter when she is thrown from her horse. Sylvia is thrown from her horse and thinking her unconscious, George takes her calling out that he loves her. She drives him from the place and George thrashes her. But in a few days, he goes to her and goes to Princeton, meets Sylvia, a tutor, gets a place on the football team and goes to college to win from Harvard. He makes many acquaintances. He has determined that he will win Sylvia, each time seemingly winning the breach between them. But Sylvia is very kind to George, and at her home meets her friend, Betty Allison, who is very kind to George. Sylvia, who is a very kind girl, makes a success, and in college, she still loves him, showing preference for a classmate who proves to be a scoundrel, but Sylvia, who is a very kind girl, goes to training camp and says farewell to Sylvia before sailing to fight overseas.

Mrs. Planter came back to George's mind, momentarily as it was, as a man surrendered himself to self-destructive emergencies, he told himself, was all over. Ages, epochs, generations, merely determined its depth. The hell after war! Did Wandel mean there was danger then of an attempt to thin was George? Was Lambert, of all people, going to assist the Allens to plan it, going?

"It would mean another dark age," he mused.

His own little self-imposed coat he now had gone on top of a far thicker one without which he would have been as helpless as a bushman or some antipodal creature escaped from an unexplored country.

He laughed, but uncomfortably. Those two had made him uneasy, and Squibs, naturally, was at Lambert's elbow, ready to pounce on a day's delay or two ago which he had scarcely had time to read because of the demands of an extended movement and the confusion of receiving replacements and the veneer of an attempt to read the news now. Understanding.

"Brotherhood."

"You are helping to bring it about."

Dinner Stories

"Scrambled eggs," ordered a customer in a city market restaurant. "Milk toast," murmured his companion, who was not feeling well. "Scramble two and a glass of milk," sang out the waitress with the titanic hair.

"Here," corrected the second man. "You'll get it, Buddy," replied the girl. "That's what they call milk toast down in Pittsburgh where I worked."

The two customers held a conference and decided to "put one over" on the "fresh young thing" from Pittsburgh. The first one wanted a glass of milk and the second a cup of black coffee. A girl appeared to put a "set up" of the restaurant artifice in front of the men the second man gave the following order:

"A bottle of ketchup fluid for my friend and a scotch of Java with no foam for me."

"Chalk one up a dipper of ink," yelled the girl. She didn't even grin.

In southwest Louisiana, where French habits and customs have prevailed since the days of the first French settlers, the pioneer language is more commonly spoken in many communities than English.

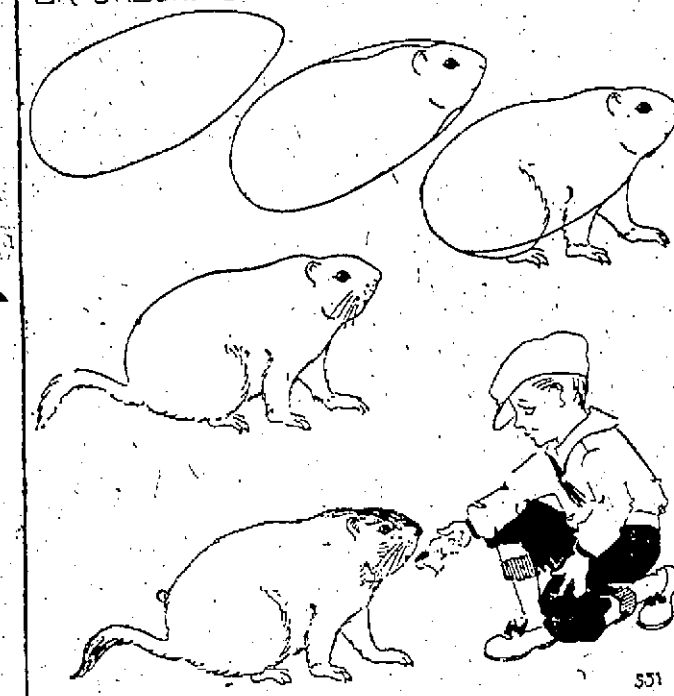

When the telephone was introduced in a certain town the company had considerable difficulty in signing subscribers. The French-speaking people shied at the innovation.

One day the telephone manager called Mr. Francois Lafort, a rice farmer, and pointed out to him the advantages of the telephone. When the manager had finished his arguments, Francois wagged his head in refusal and said: "Pardieu, I have English telephone which I parler. You got French telephone an' I talk."

WILLIE WOODCHUCK

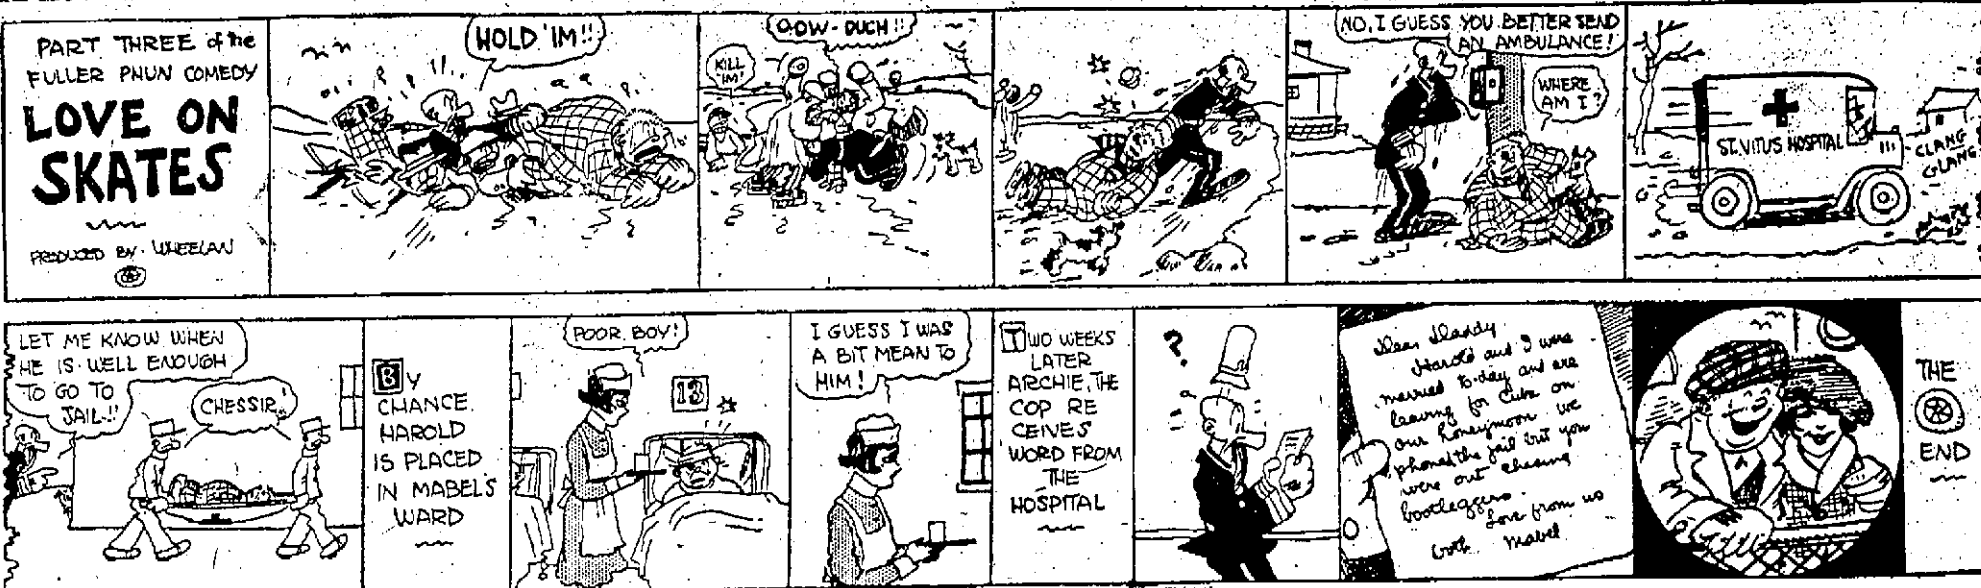

OR GROUNDHOG AS SOME PEOPLE CALL HIM

Do you know Willie Woodchuck, who has very coarse hair, a heavy body, short bushy tail, powerful legs and feet armed with strong claws for digging? It is a favorite game of the country boy and his dog. Very few people ever eat him and his coarsely haired pelts are as worthless as fur. Willie Woodchuck is a very sluggish and stupid animal. Farmer Jones does not like him, because he does great damage to his garden and crops. Of course, you all have heard the story of "Groundhog Day." How on February 2 he awakes from his long winter sleep and appears at the mouth of his burrow? If the sun is shining so that he can see his shadow he will go back and sleep for six more weeks. For when he sees his shadow it is a sign of six weeks more cold weather.

"Tinker Bob" Stories

by Carlyle H. Holcomb

THE KING OF THE RIVER SONG

Did you ever hear a Crocodile sing? Well, it isn't many times that they let folks hear them, but you know that Tinker Bob, the King, is favored.

This was the song they sang for Tinker Bob and the Elephants on the bank of the river. Then one by one they plunged into the water and were out of sight, all but Mr. Croc himself. He stayed a bit to talk with the King.

"What did you pull little Tim's nose for?" asked Tinker Bob.

Mr. Croc shook his head. "He came down to the river," said he, "and began to splash when we were about ready to catch some big fish. They were all ready in the shallow water and we were creeping up slowly when he came down there and frightened them all away. I think you would have done the same thing had you been hungry for fish like we were. Why we have to lay about on the bottom of the river for weeks at a time without a fish to eat, then when we get a chance like that we like to take it."

"Don't you eat anything but fish?" asked Tinker Bob.

"Oh yes, we eat most anything that comes along. A native boy or girl slides into the river now and then and

When they found out that they could do the King no harm they decided to sing for him. Mr. Croc himself wasn't much of a singer but he was a great leader. So he lined his singers up in a row, took a stick from a tree near by and started them off with a song which they called "The King of The River."

"In the bottom of the river the Crocodile sings, In the bottom of the river the Crocodile sings, In the bottom of the river the Crocodile sings, Big fat turtles and other things."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MENU HINT

Breakfast: Grapefruit, Poached Eggs on Toast, Jam, Coffee, Lunches: Chili Con Carne, Crackers, Tea, Dinner: Roast Pork, Apple Sauce, Baked Potatoes, Creamed Cabbage, Sailor's Duff, Coffee.

RECIPES FOR THE DAY

Doughnuts—One cup granulated sugar, one tablespoon melted butter, two eggs, one teaspoon vanilla, one cup milk, one-half teaspoon of salt, flour to make just stiff enough to handle, one tablespoon baking powder. Beat the sugar and butter together. Add the eggs and vanilla. Add the flour and salt. Add the baking powder. Beat the mixture until it is stiff enough to handle. Drop the mixture into hot oil. Fry until brown. Drain on paper. Serve with syrup or with the following: Whip one-half pint cream stiff, add yolk of one egg, three-fourths cup of powdered sugar, one teaspoon vanilla.

Oatmeal Cookies—Cream three-fourths cup butter with one cup of sugar, add two well beaten eggs. Sift three-fourths teaspoon soda into two cups of flour, add one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon cinnamon. Add to the mixture two cups uncooked rolled oats and one cup chopped raisins or one-half cup of one-half cup of raisins. Drop on buttered tins and bake.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE TABLE

Dinner sets now come in period patterns.

A hot water vegetable dish will keep the vegetables hot from beneath.

A new electric toaster has reversible doors so that bread can be turned without touching.

For the salad it is very artistic to have a copper set with a glass bowl and wooden fork and spoon.

Copper, indeed, is gaining popularity for the table. Compotes, relish dishes and sandwich trays are good looking and reasonable in price.

Lettuce will go further and decorates better if shredded.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Fine blinets and shawls should be dried on curtain stretchers.

Ammonia will remove iodine stains.

Chlorine of lime is a valuable and inexpensive disinfectant in the household.

When Ivory handled knives look yellow, rub them with fine sandpaper or emery; it will take off the spots and restore the whiteness.

BEAUTY CHATS

by Edna Kent Forbes

A PREMATURELY OLD NECK

It is quite tragic the number of youthful faces one sees with necks that are dry and yellow and wrinkled as those of old women. Wrinkles cannot always be kept from the face in spite of the best of care, but there is absolutely no excuse for a wrinkled neck on anyone this side of 45.

High tight collars are responsible for many ugly necks, but fortunately this style has been out for years and shows no signs of reviving. One great cause of wrinkles is sleeping with too many pillows. This makes the head bend forward so that the chin is pushed down (incidentally tends to, an early double chin) and the skin of the neck forms creases which soon become permanent.

The healthiest way to sleep is flat on the back either without a pillow, or a very very thin one. This position incidentally with straightened round shoulders. If you want to prove how beneficial it is, lie flat on your bed without any pillow under your head, and put your hand up to your throat. You can feel this position keeps the skin smooth and unwrinkled. Now put one or two pillows under your head, you can actually feel with your fingers the soft creases that form in the skin.

To treat an old neck, real or premature, hold a towel wrung from hot water round the throat to open the pores, then massage with warm cocoa butter, leaving a generous amount on the skin. Tie up the throat with a bandage and keep this on all night. Thus for eight hours you will nourish the skin with a heavy but very effective oil. In the morning massage the neck with tea.

Unknown Friend—The reason why your hair has never been so abundant since you had typhoid fever as it was previous to the attack, shows that the scalp has always been in need of some special cure. It is this condition which is now causing the hair to turn even though you are only 18 years of age.

You can overcome this tendency and create a beautiful and beautiful head of hair if you are willing to work for it. Massage the scalp every day until you feel it alive and glowing from the increased circulation. This will loosen the scalp from the bones of the head, which means a constant supply of blood to feed the roots of the hair.

A good tonic massaged into the scalp several times each week will also hasten the improvement. Shampoo about once in three weeks if seborrheas are about normal and if the hair is very dry, once in four weeks will be enough.

To Be Continued.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON, Lecturer May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: A terrible thing has happened to me. I have made all my plans to be married the first part of next month and now my fiance has left town and not told me where he has gone. I received a letter from him saying that he is unworthy of me and so he is going away and I must forget all about him. Can you imagine how I feel? I wish I could die so that I wouldn't have to face the questions people will ask me. What would you advise me to say when I am questioned?

HEART-BROKEN.

Tell people that you are not to be married as was planned, and your fiance has gone away. If questioned further say it is a subject you do not care to discuss. Yes, I can imagine how you feel with all your hopes and plans shattered. You will have to muster all the courage you can to face the situation and to build new hopes and plans.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 17 years old and have been chumming around with a girl of the same age. She has a brother two years older who has been taking an interest in me lately and when I go over to their house he asks to walk home with me. He also has invited me to the movie several times and took me to a church social. Now my mother does not like to have me go to my girl friend's home because she says her brother will think I am running after him. My girl friend comes to see me often. What should I do when she invites me to her house?

DOUBTFUL DOTY.

When your girl friend invites you to her house I think it will be all right for you to go. If, however, you frequented the home without invitation they might have cause to think you were running after the boy.

The first stage appearance of pretty Ruth Renick took place at the Victory theater in San Jose, in 1914.

This eliminates ugly lines.

hair is very dry, once in four weeks will be enough.

TRAINED NURSE, FORMERLY OF CHICAGO, PRAISES TRUTONA

Emphatically Declares Famous Tonic Has no Equal Among Present Day Medicines.

If there is anyone in this world, capable of judging the merits of any preparation, it is the doctor or nurse. Skilled to the utmost in the science of medicine, to say nothing of the lessons which years of experience have taught, the doctor or nurse KNOWS a medicine. Among the doctors and nurses in scores of cities, the famous tonic, is Mrs. F. C. Walters, formerly a nurse in large hospitals of Chicago, Dubuque and Minneapolis, who now resides at 333 Butler street, Waterloo, Ia.

"I was so wrapped up in my work—nursing others—that I failed to take care of myself and I was suffering from chronic constipation and indigestion. When I began using Trutona," Mrs. Walters says, "I tried other medicines but without success and I just feel—duty bound to tell the public that this medicine is without an equal for the relief of habitual constipation and attendant ills. Furthermore, I can say that it is a simply wonderful strength-builder. Trutona certainly deserves my hearty recommendation to the thousands of sufferers, troubled as I was."

Trutona is sold in Janesville at the PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE; Edgerton, Atwell & Dallman's; Evansville, Pioneer Drug Store; Delavan, Murphy & O'Neal's; Clinton, Boden's; and all good druggists in surrounding towns.

High School to Have Ball Squad--"YW" Beats St. Mary's

TRACK TEAM MAY ALSO BE WORKED UP BY THE BLUES

In keeping with plans set a year ago when the first team in several years was put upon the diamond, Janesville high school will again put forth a baseball team this season. While it is early yet, it is hoped to get together an aggregation under the guidance of Coach Thomas McDonald that will put the Blues on the map among "prep" school circles in Southern Wisconsin.

Difficultly was experienced last year in finding opponents, only a few high schools in this section having baseball teams. Efforts of interested parties are successful, and this trouble will not be felt this spring.

Need Uniforms—The ball squad is in need of uniforms. The players went through last season in a great array of different outfits, some in old clothes, some in borrowed "unifs." Head Coach Floyd Rader is solicited to find funds to properly equip the team.

A complaint made by Reyner Tuesday was that he will experience hardship in staying up school spirit at Janesville high to support a baseball team. A school that went more than a thousand rooters to a football game at Edgerton certainly is going to back a baseball team.

Track may be added to the athletic activities of the school this spring.

Busy Man's Sport Page

BY FRANK SINGLAIER
In the departure of Joseph Darratt to Ft. Wayne, Ind., Janesville loses a good booster of clean sports. "Joe" has been president of the Janesville basketball league and a member of the physical committee of the Y. M. C. A. He also gave his support to bowling.

The cancelling with Evansville following the little controversy that raged over the matter of a referee and the tactics of the rooters, Arkley high school is not showing much sportsmanship. It never is a nice policy to quit because a few words have been spilled in argument.

Once again it is possible to learn that nothing is impossible. Now Millford, which won the class B title in the Rockford district high school basketball tournament, has only 10 boys in its high school. One is a couple, another is not an athlete and the other eight are members of the team.

Athletes for all is General Pershing's plan for the army. "Our experience in the World War taught us the general physical standing of the youth and men of the country was not what it should be. It is one matter leading nations in athletic participation, had prided ourselves," he said, "We encourage participation in athletics in which the club and the expert might find recreation and enjoyment." Another argument for municipal interest in athletic field and playground interest.

Well, there's one thing about Edna Ruth's $15,000 salary. It will not encourage young girls away from home to founder in the mire of Hollywood like the reputed riches of movie actresses have been wont to do. It will, perhaps, increase the number of young fellows who will seek berths in the big leagues.

Not only the public but the athletes are beginning to see that a Dempsey-Willis fight is out of the question, aside from the "can" issue. It is simple, as this column stated last week. Another boost for amateur athletics.

William F. Laurentz, noted tennis player, died in Paris.

Gov. Groesbeck, Michigan, refuses to permit boxing at Benton Harbor, July 4.

Turning down a "Pirate" contract, Walter Schmidt, star, Pittsburgh catcher, asked for more than $10,000 a year.

While awaiting an increase in salary, Dick Kerr, formerly of the Beloit Fairies and now a White Sox twirler, is coaching a high school, nine at Paris, Tex.

Rolling 667, Jimmie Smith went in to third in the singles at the A. B. C. pin-moot, Toledo. Standings remain unchanged.

Georges Carpentier plans to defend his light-heavyweight title, perhaps in America.

At Baseball Camps—Harry Hooper and Amos Strunk are on their way to join the Chicago Sox with Capt. Eddie Collins. Bill Falk and Robertson are due to arrive at Spring, Tex., Wednesday. Ward, Yankoo, holdout, signed his contract. Barnes signed his Giant agreement. The Brooklynans are suffering colds at Jacksonville. The Chicagoans are ready to open practice series with coast teams with practice pitching staff. President Laker watched the Phillies at Leesburg, Fla. The Athletics played an exhibition game at Eagle Pass, Tex. Outfielder Roush is an Cincinnati. Nichols and Joe Malone and a couple of stable horses. He made them go the limit and showed a splendid recovery that should take him through the 10 rounds a-flying.

This chap Muzzy, junior lightweight champ of Wisconsin, is no slouch. He uses his head in training as well as in the ring. He has joined the ranks of the leading pugilists of the day in taking up golf.

Muzzy is a quiet fellow, rather modest. Last year Tichie Mitchell was stung by the golf bug and casually asked Jimmy along one day. Richie jokingly suggested a small side bet, which Muzzy accepted. To the astonishment of Mitchell, Jimmy handled the clubs like a veteran, negotiating several difficult puts and won the game handily. He got his golf knowledge as a caddy at the Blue Mound Country club, Milwaukee.

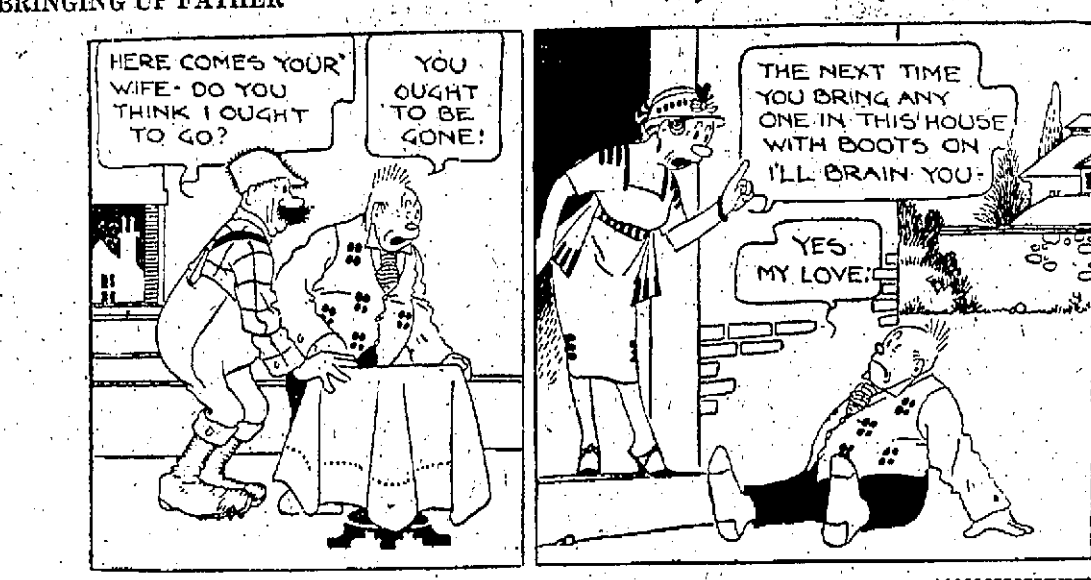

This same Richie will arrive in Janesville Wednesday night with Muzzy.

Joe Malone, the little lad who takes on Sabone of Rockford in the opener, is an interesting young fellow. He was more interesting Tuesday with beautiful shiner on his left eye, in training. Joe is heart and soul in the Janesville club. He not only promises the best that is in him, but cries from the house that the fans ought to get out and see this curd, which he calls "the best ever."

Some years ago, Eddie Nichols of Janesville, won two draws from Bobby Ward, the Beloit and St. Paul brawler. That was when Ward and Eddie were starting out. Eddie laid off the scrapping for a while, but now that he is back in, he promises Frankie Brown of Beloit the time of his life.

BRUMM'S MADISON

Edgerton—Trailing throughout the first half, Edgerton's American Legion basketball five was unable to make the lead and lost to the Madison Legion here Monday night, 35 to 20. Brumm, former Lakota Cardinal player, occupied center for the Capital city. Two of Edgerton's best men were out because of illness.

The half ended, 17 to 10. Three baskets by O'Brien, Madison guard, early in the second half, placed the visitors far in the lead. Brumm and Halverson sunk two field goals each while O'Brien hit the ring six times. Frequent fouling by Madison permitted the locals 16 chances at 47-20 throws.

Whitford starred for Edgerton, catching four field goals.

The seventh grade defeated the sixth, 17-0, in a preliminary.

KOs. and Fast Work Due in Elks' Bouts, Thursday

Thursday night's card of the Janesville Elks' Athletic club at the Coliseum rink on South River street, will be a bank up, bang down, bang out affair. In other words the fans are promised at least one knock-out, one mighty classy scrap and two other fast mixers. So keep the dope on paper.

The substitution of "Dummy" Whurley for the windup against Jimmy Muzzy of Milwaukee, in the place of Frankie Kiek of Rockford, gives a better match than the original. Whurley has shown before many of the Chicago suburban clubs, making good in all of them. He has been mixing with some of the fastest of them and is about as evenly hooked up against Muzzy as comparisons are likely to indicate for youngsters.

Whurley worked out at the Lakeside gym Tuesday afternoon with Eddie Nichols and Joe Malone and a couple of stable horses. He made them go the limit and showed a splendid recovery that should take him through the 10 rounds a-flying.

Joe Malone, the little lad who takes on Sabone of Rockford in the opener, is an interesting young fellow. He was more interesting Tuesday with beautiful shiner on his left eye, in training. Hooch, Hipsters, Still Owners Get Thorough Cleaning Out by Court in Green County Stopping the booze traffic in Southern Wisconsin in the opinion of the authorities is a program of law enforcement among those who make a living off frequent violations. Stopping the professional peddler—the man who makes a profit—is declared to be the first step in obtaining obedience and respect for the law. Prohibition laws, the sentences imposed and the punishment of the violators once committed to jail has attracted a commanding attention in Southern Wisconsin.

Attorneys acquainted with the prohibition cases have given law enforcement much thought. All agree that it is the lack of respect for the law that is undermining the dry act. "Stop the traffic!" is the ultimatum sounded by Judge George Grimm.

Clean-up Green Co. Experiences of Green county officials have been interesting in results. Attorneys who have had cause to make widespread investigation declare that until recently Green county had citizens who were open violators of the law. Among these were aliens, or recently created citizens, who possessed the thought of the inherent right to make or drink liquor. It was agreed Green county had considerable liquor shipped in. Violations were frequent and open. Among a troublesome minority of people there was little or no respect for the liquor laws.

In fact in Green county much as in any other county the prohibition laws were more or less of a joke; something to be laughed at, disregarded so long as one was not caught. Cases show that booze was being peddled from a few of the Monroe soft-drink stores. Change is wrought. But there has been a change in Monroe and the county. Janesville men give credit to A. E. Mitchell, former sheriff and C. J. Bucher, who obtained the office when Mitchell was deposed by a court ruling. These two men joined hands for vigorous, thorough and complete raid against traffic in moonshine.

They were not concerned so much with the German housewife who made a gallon of dandelion wine having a kick for the use of the family. She was violating the law it is true. But the attitude taken in Green county was that she was a petty violator as compared to the man or woman who engaged in law violation for a profit. It was the man who made a business of trafficking in liquor that the Green county authorities were after. And they got him.

It was a vigorous prosecution, full of energy. They hired no stool pigeons and employed no professional police deception. The sheriff's office went after the professional booze peddler with a punitive intent. They caught the man who torched a flask, well and good, but he was small fry. They wanted the man who made the stuff and then sold it. The campaign of getting the booze traffic hound was highly successful as the recent court records show. They rounded up a number and they put the clamps down tight enough to make them quit.

This vigorous campaign by the sheriff's office was backed by a thorough prosecution in the courts. The woman who made the dandelion wine may have been let off with a $10 fine and a warning. But it was a different matter when the professional bootlegger went up before Judge Grimm. If the court was satisfied that the defendant had been making a living off violation of the laws, the defendant got sealed in a heavy fine and oftentimes a jail sentence added.

The fact a defendant came into court and pleaded "I did it—but never again" was accepted to some extent. Generally the fine was near the maximum limit. Few got off without some punishment meriting the offense. But the aim of the court was always to stop the traffic. Second appearances on a liquor charge invites a term in jail. And the court has laid down the law that judges have the power to order that prisoners be kept in jail and not paroled out under easy terms.

His Violators, Hard. It is a well known fact that Judge George Grimm has no fixed or established policy in handling cases. Each has its merits in the opinion of the judge. It is significant that malicious violators must always get stung. Especially is this true when the court is satisfied the defendant to be sentenced is not telling the truth or not telling all he knows, about a case.

There have been instances when prisoners were arraigned for sentence and recommendations made for fines such as $200 and the court raised the ante to $500, or $500 a count, such as possession, transporting and sale.

Attorneys in position to know claim that two-thirds of the willful violators of the prohibition laws for profit has been stopped in Green county for the reason the county authorities went after the professional booze hound with hammer and tongs and they were backed by a vigorous prosecution in the courts.
